- i. The Bank shall setup the Subscriber Administrator(s) as per the businessONLINE Application Form submitted by the Subscriber or in any other form as acceptable to the Bank.
- ii. businessONLINE shall not be activated unless all the requisite documentation, including a hard copy of the businessONLINE Application Form, have been duly signed by all Subscriber or by its authorised signatories and delivered to the Bank.
- iii. It is understood that the Bank's General Terms and Conditions as applicable to the Account(s) and as set out in the Bank's account opening form (or otherwise) executed by the Subscriber, shall continue to apply and be binding in addition to the Terms and Conditions stated herein.

- iii. The Subscriber shall advise the Bank of any change that occurs to the Subscriber from time to time which includes but not limited to change in powers of signatories, mandate and/or Subscriber's constitution documents and shall provide the Bank in such form as the Bank deems appropriate documented evidence of such change. Further the Subscriber shall immediately notify the Bank of any changes to or by the Subscriber Administrator(s) and obtain written letter from the Bank confirming to Subscriber of appropriate action taken. The Subscriber shall remain responsible for all actions, losses or liabilities arising out of such changes not notified to the bank as envisaged herein and for all actions undertaken by the Subscriber Administrator(s) from the time such change occurred to the obtaining of said written confirmation letter from the Bank.
- iv. The Bank shall not affect any subsequent modifications or additions to the businessONLINE unless the Subscriber provides the Bank with such authorisations, documents or any other information required by the Bank. Failure to produce the required authorisation, information or documentation will entitle the Bank to withhold implementation of modifications or additions to the businessONLINE.
- v. The Subscriber understands that electronic acceptance, to be made by Subscriber Administrator(s) or Subscriber User(s), to any terms and conditions associated with new or existing facilities offered, via electronic media, through businessONLINE will be sufficient and will be binding on the Subscriber for all intents and purposes.
- vi. The Subscriber hereby, irrevocably and unconditionally without any right of objection, accepts any and all transactions arising from the use of the businessONLINE, including, without limitation, any and all transactions effected by a Subscriber User(s).
- vii. All requests received by the Bank through businessONLINE will be considered to have been authorised in accordance with the authorisation rules setup by the Subscriber. The Bank is not responsible for any errors/omissions arising out of incorrect setup of the authorisation rules by the Subscriber or Subscriber Administrator(s).
- viii. The Bank's record of any transaction processed by the use of businessONLINE shall be conclusive evidence of such transaction and shall be binding on the Subscriber for all purposes.
- ix. It is understood that authorisation rules on the businessONLINE may differ from the account operating instructions provided to the Bank and the Bank shall not be liable in any way for executing such transactions that have been authorised on the businessONLINE.
- x. The Subscriber shall be responsible for any errors/omissions arising out of incorrect setup of the authorisation rules by the Subscriber or Subscriber Administrator(s).
- xi. The Bank shall have the right and the Subscriber hereby authorises the Bank to limit, modify or cancel the businessONLINE (in part or in full) without assigning any reason, after serving a notice to the Subscriber.
- xii. The businessONLINE is provided entirely at the risk and responsibility of the Subscriber who agrees to indemnify the Bank for all loss, damage or expense (including legal expenses), howsoever caused, resulting from the use of any of the businessONLINE services. It is understood that the Bank shall not be held liable for any costs, damages or expenses (including legal expenses) directly or indirectly arising out of or in connection with the non authorised operations of the businessONLINE by the Subscriber or any other person natural or legal not known or authorised by the Subscriber.
- xiv. The Subscriber shall adhere to all applicable laws, including but not limited to the instructions issued by the RBI as well as the provisions and regulations under the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 as notified and amended from time to time.

2. Operation & Implementation:

- i. In respect of the mode of administration on the businessONLINE, the Subscriber shall have the option to select:
 - a) either to have a single Subscriber Administrator who would administer user(s) access and other administration activities to the businessONLINE on a single mode basis; or
 - b) to have joint Subscriber Administrators who would administer user(s) access and other administration activities to the businessONLINE on a dual mode basis.
- ii. Where the businessONLINE service is made available, it is acknowledged that, irrespective of whether the mode of operation of the Account(s) is joint or single, the businessONLINE may be accessed by each Subscriber User according to the privilege granted to the Subscriber User by the Subscriber Administrator(s) of the businessONLINE service and any and all transactions undertaken by any Subscriber User will be binding on the Subscriber and all account holders.
- iii. The Subscriber shall ensure sufficient funds are available or appropriate arrangements are made in the Account(s) to which the businessONLINE service relates so that all transactions can be honored. If for any reason the Account(s) is overdrawn by the use of the relevant businessONLINE service, the Subscriber shall be responsible for immediately making up the deficit by a direct payment or transfer of cleared funds from any other account maintained with the Bank. Without prejudice to any remedy available to the Bank, failure to comply with this condition shall entitle the Bank to cancel the relevant businessONLINE and to recover any outstanding amounts and charges from the Subscriber in a manner deemed appropriate by the Bank.
- iv. The Subscriber acknowledges that any printouts/statements or files or any other form in which any information or transactions pertaining to the Account(s) has been downloaded/copied shall not be used in any dealings with third parties in whatsoever manner.
- v. The Subscriber acknowledges the Bank may not issue any printed advice or confirmation for any transaction conducted through the businessONLINE.
- vi. The Bank shall not be obliged to act upon or carry out any instructions or communication sent by the Subscriber through businessONLINE secured e-mail.
- vii. It is understood that all services requested or transactions received through businessONLINE within Banking Hours shall be carried out the same day or on the next Business Day on a best effort basis irrespective of the date and/or time on print-outs or confirmation advice generated by businessONLINE system.
- viii. The Subscriber agrees to check transactions and statement of accounts and inform the Bank immediately (but in all cases within 7 days of receipt of the statement of accounts) of any discrepancy.

- ix. The Subscriber may make a request for the products, services and facilities that the Subscriber wishes to avail through businessONLINE, which may include but not be limited to demand drafts, telegraphic transfers, NEFT/IMPS/RTGS transfers, manager's cheques, e-wallet services and payments initiated on third party websites, trade services including documentary collections/letters of credit and receipts from exports, trade financing, guarantees foreign exchange & treasury services, brokerage services and any other products as will be made available by the Bank on businessONLINE, subject to the overall daily transactions limits set out by the Subscriber. The processing of such requests, however, below or above the limits set out by the Subscriber, shall be at the discretion of the Bank.
- x. When the operation of the Account(s) through businessONLINE is made available, the Subscriber understands that:
 - a) All transactions processed shall be subject to the foreign exchange rates, which are applicable for the Business Day and time on which the request was processed by the Bank. Foreign exchange rates displayed on the Bank's web site or in the Bank's premises at the time of receipt of the request by the Bank are indicative rates only.
 - b) The Subscriber agrees that the purchase by the Bank of a demand draft or manager's cheque previously issued at the Subscriber's request will be at the Bank's discretion and transacted at the Bank's buying rate for the currency of the draft or cheque.
 - c) The Subscriber agrees that the Bank has the exclusive right of selection of the correspondent banks and partners/ alliances/ merchants for all services including but not limited to issuance of demand drafts, telegraphic transfers, e-wallet services and trade services.
 - d) The Subscriber agrees that the Bank shall not be liable for any act or omission of the Subscriber users or any correspondent or paying bank or partners/ alliances/ merchants for any error or delay in transmission
 - e) The Subscriber agrees that the Bank may outsource its processing services provided under or in connection with businessONLINE including transactions received or processed on behalf of the Subscriber
 - f) The Subscriber agrees to not use the businessONLINE service to create an unauthorised overdraft on any of its Accounts and the Bank is entitled to refuse to accept any instruction that would do so. If an unauthorised overdraft is created, the Bank may take any action which the Bank thinks fit and charge any interest and charges to the account in question (in accordance with the terms and conditions of that account).
- xi. The businessONLINE service will usually be available for use at the times given on the Bank's website or at other times notified to the Subscriber. The Subscriber accepts, however, that routine maintenance requirements, excess demand on the systems and circumstances beyond the Bank's control may mean it is not always possible for the businessONLINE service to be available during its normal operating hours.
- xii. In connection with the businessONLINE service, the Bank is entitled at any time to:
 - a) change the mode of operation; or
 - b) add to, remove or otherwise change, end or suspend any of the facilities available; or
 - c) end the businessONLINE service.
- xiii. If the Bank decides to change or end the businessONLINE service, the Bank will give the Subscriber 30 days' notice or whatever shorter period of notice may be reasonable in the circumstances. The Bank will in no way be liable in case of such termination / end of service and / or for any loss caused / suffered in this regard.
- xiv. If The Subscriber Holds any Joint Accounts:
 - a) In connection with any Account(s) which the Subscriber holds jointly (provided that this may be operated on a single signing authority basis) with others, the Subscriber agrees that any single Party to a joint account may validly give instructions for the businessONLINE in connection with that joint account
 - b) The provisions of the section above override any other existing arrangements in connection with the Subscriber authority to operate joint accounts.
- xv. All the Subscribers will be jointly and severally liable to the Bank for all dues payable to the Bank and / or in case of loss / damage, whatsoever, caused / suffered to / by us due to use of any or all of the businessONLINE service.

3. Security:

- k) The Subscriber and Subscriber User(s) and Subscriber Administrator(s) should change their Password regularly and shall do so if businessONLINE requires you to do so.
- l) The Subscriber/ Subscriber User(s)/ Subscriber Administrator(s) shall take all reasonable steps to safeguard the Password at all times. The Subscriber/ Subscriber User(s)/ Subscriber Administrator(s) shall not disclose any details of your Password to anyone else, including to someone who is a joint account holder, or to a staff member, or to someone giving assistance on a technical helpdesk in connection with businessONLINE.
- m) If the Subscriber/ Subscriber User(s)/ Subscriber Administrator(s) discover or suspect that Password is known to someone else, the Password should be changed immediately. If this is not possible, the Subscriber must notify the Bank immediately by calling the Bank on the Bank's phone banking centre numbers as may be displayed on the Bank's website. The Bank will suspend use of businessONLINE service until new Password has been set up. Any transaction done prior to such a notification and done within 1 working day after giving such notice, shall be entirely at the Subscriber risk and cost.
- v. If the Subscriber becomes aware of any transaction on any of its accounts that has not been validly authorised by the Subscriber, the Subscriber must immediately notify the Bank by calling the Bank on the Bank's phone banking centre numbers as may be displayed on the Bank's website. The Subscribers are reminded to check their Bank statements for any unauthorised transactions.
- vi. The Bank will not be liable in any manner whatsoever due to unauthorised usage and for all purposes any usage will be construed as a proper and authenticated usage.

4. Liability:

- i. The Subscriber acknowledges that the Bank is not liable at any time for failure to provide any of the products, facilities or other services available under businessONLINE attributable, either wholly or partly to reasons beyond the Bank's control, including but not limited to any technical malfunction or breakdown or any Act of God, act of government or regulatory authority, war, fire, flood, explosion, terrorism, riot or civil commotion, or non-availability, non-functioning or malfunctioning of internet services provider(s), broadcast telecommunications or other network systems or services, except in cases where these events may be remedied. The Bank will not be responsible for any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly from any malfunction or failure of the businessONLINE services.
- ii. The Bank will not be liable to the Subscriber if the Bank is unable to perform its obligations under these Terms and Conditions due (whether direct or indirectly) to:
 - a) The failure of any machine, computer, data processing system or transmission link; or
 - b) Any period of essential maintenance, critical change, repairs, alteration to or failure of computer systems or any industrial disputes or anything outside the Bank's control or that of its agents or sub-contractors.
 - c) The Bank will not be responsible for any loss of or damage to the Subscriber's data, software, computer, telecommunications or other equipment caused as a result of using the businessONLINE.
 - d) The Subscriber acknowledges sole responsibility for all taxes, charges or liabilities which shall arise out of or in connection with the subscription and use of businessONLINE and undertakes to pay the same.
- iii. The Subscriber will be liable for any or all misuse of the Password by someone to give unauthorised instructions purporting to come from you except in case of willful or negligent act on the Bank's part. Further it is the Subscriber responsibility to ensure:
 - a) that all the Security procedures described in sections 3 above have been faithfully observed; and
 - b) the Subscriber will be held liable for all losses due to unauthorised use if you have acted fraudulently or with negligence or if you are in default of any of the Security obligations described in section 3 above.

- iv. The Subscriber will not be responsible nor have any liability for any instruction that is not authorised by the Subscriber but is given using your Password if:
 - a) such instruction is given after the Subscriber have notified the Bank that the Subscriber has discovered or suspect that the Subscriber Password is known to someone else in accordance with section 3; or
 - b) the Subscriber Password has become known to the person giving the unauthorised instruction as a result of our failure to comply with clause 8.2 or any negligence or willful default on the Bank's part.
- v. When the Bank receives a transaction instruction from the Subscriber through the businessONLINE, the Bank will be entitled to debit any payment plus any charges payable for the transaction from the Account(s) the Subscriber have specified or any other account that the Subscriber holds with the Bank. Once the Subscriber has given an instruction through the businessONLINE service, the Subscriber will not be able to reverse it. The Bank will be under no obligation:
 - a) to reverse an instruction the Subscriber have given; or
 - b) to accept an instruction that is conditional or reversible or which requires us to pay a third party sooner than we would be able to pay them following our normal banking practices.
- v. However, if the Subscriber does request the Bank to reverse an instruction after the Subscriber has given it, the Bank may at its sole discretion try to do so to the extent that this is possible under the rules and practices of the banking system. The Subscriber agrees that the Subscriber will be responsible for any costs the Bank may incur as a result
- vii. The Bank may believe to be justified in doing so:
 - a) refuse to carry out an instruction given via the businessONLINE service; or
 - b) require written confirmation from the Subscriber of a particular instruction if the Bank believes that an instruction may not have been properly authorised by the Subscriber, the Bank will be entitled, after making reasonable efforts to check whether it was properly authorised, to take steps to reverse any action taken on the basis of that instruction. The Bank will not be responsible for any loss to the Subscriber that results from such a reversal.
